

Job title	Special Education Teacher
Reports to	Head of School

About the Organization

Hawthorn Leadership School for Girls is the first all-girls public charter school in the state of Missouri serving students in grades 6-12. Hawthorn provides young women with academic background, self-esteem, and leadership skills, with a focus on STEM, that will enable them to succeed in college and beyond.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Special Education Teacher will develop teaching plans according to students' learning needs. They will search for activities and resources that can be easily adapted to each child's educational requirements. They will also collaborate with the school counselor, and parents to help children develop and socialize.

Duties and responsibilities

- Provide research-based specialized instruction to address the instructional goals and objectives contained in each student's IEP.
- Assesses student progress and determines the need for additional support of adjustments to instructional techniques or strategies.
- Utilize various teaching techniques, methods, and principles of learning to enable students to meet their IEP goals.
- Develops and implement annual IEP plans for students.
- Coordinates the delivery of special education services in each student's IEP.
- Serves as a primary contact for the parent.
- Schedule meetings and work cooperatively with school staff and others in order to meet the needs of students with disabilities.
- Assists with providing data regarding school and state reporting.
- Collaborates and consults with outside providers who serve the target population
- Provides consultation to general education teachers regarding adaptations, modifications, behavior management, and other instructional interventions to meet the needs of students with disabilities.

- Coordinate with providers for evaluation and reevaluation of students.

Qualifications

State certification in Special Education
Desire to work in an all-girls school.

To Apply

Please submit a cover letter and resume explaining your interest in the position to careers@hawthornschool.org